The closest public transport is the number 1 or 6 tram from Swanston St (Melbourne's CBD). Get off at stop 117 (corner of Richardson St - just past the Cemetery).

Or catch the number 96 tram from Collins St. This goes along Nicholson St - get off at Richardson or Pidgon St.

If coming by car or taxi, drive up Rathdowne St or Lygon St and turn at Richardson St to get onto Drummond St in North Carlton.

*Note: Drummond St is blocked by the housing estate in Carlton.

The Indigenous Hospitality House is a communal household offering a place for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to stay while attending appointments or visiting a family member in hospital in Melbourne.

To be a guest at the House, you must first be referred through an Aboriginal Hospital Liaison Officer or regional health worker who can arrange your stay with us.

There are five non-Indigenous, on-site residents: Hazel, Grace, Josh, Teash, Ethan, and Warrick.

We would like to acknowledge the traditional custodians, the Wurundjeri-Willam people of the Kulin nation. We would like to pay our respects to their elders past, present and future, and recognise that sovereignty was never ceded.

We welcome you, our guests, into our home.

PEACE of the HOUSE

The IHH seeks to create a safe, peaceful and welcoming space for all. Anyone who does not show respect and care for all people in the house will not be able to stay.

DONATION

Guests are invited to make a donation towards food and utilities. We suggest $5 per night per family. A resident can write you a receipt.

KEYS and PARKING PERMIT

On arrival you will be given a set of keys to the House for the front and back doors, and your room. Please take these with you when you go out and return them on your final day. We also have a visitor parking permit if you wish to borrow one, please also return this on your final day.

MEALS

Breakfast food is in the kitchen, to use as you need. Please wash your dishes up afterward.

Lunch is not provided, but please help yourself to any food that doesn't have a name on it. There is a shelf in the fridge for any food you bring or buy.

Guests are welcome to join us for dinner each weeknight if they wish. We eat at about 7pm. Let us know if you would prefer us to keep food aside for you to eat later.

Feel free to use the kitchen. Please wash up after yourself.
